COMPLAINT

1. Since January 20, 2025, the Trump Administration has entered into settlement agreements with at least nine of the nation’s largest private law firms, including: Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP; Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP; Wilkie Farr & Gallagher LLP; Milbank LLP; Latham & Watkins LLP; Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP; Kirkland & Ellis LLP; Allen Overy Shearman Sterling LLP; and Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP.<sup>1</sup>

Administration’s agreement not to investigate them or seek to ban their lawyers from accessing federal buildings.<sup>2</sup>

3. Though the scope of the services included in these agreements is unclear, President Trump has suggested these law firms may be working pro bono for the federal government on issues including “trade deals, immigration enforcement, and . . . defending police officers who are under investigation for misconduct.”<sup>3</sup>

4. According to public reporting, at least three of the law firms in question—Paul Weiss, Kirkland & Ellis, and Simpson Thacher—have committed to performing free legal work for the Department of Commerce, including work related to trade deals.<sup>4</sup>

5. Members of Congress have launched investigations into the scope of the agreements between the nine law firms and the Trump Administration and have questioned whether these agreements potentially violate federal bribery, extortion, honest services fraud, or racketeering laws.<sup>5</sup>

7. In October 2025, American Oversight submitted requests under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) to the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) and the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) seeking to shed light on the Trump Administration's agreements with private law firms and the work these law firms are doing for the Administration.

8. Plaintiff American Oversight now brings this action against Commerce and DOJ under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, and the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, seeking declaratory and injunctive relief to compel compliance with the requirements of FOIA.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 2201, and 2202.

10. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B) and 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e).

11. Because Defendants have failed to comply with the applicable time-limit provisions of FOIA, American Oversight is deemed to have exhausted its administrative remedies pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(C)(i) and is now entitled to judicial action enjoining Defendants from continuing to withhold department or agency records and ordering the production of department or agency records improperly withheld.
